

Master Title Agency, LLC Privacy Policy

Master Title Agency, LLC is committed to protecting your privacy. This privacy policy outlines our use of your information given to us by you, your attorney, and in some cases a third party such as lender, or real estate agent all related to our issuing Title Insurance.

Collection and Use of Information

We receive information on forms requesting that we issue Title Insurance. This information is received by secure sources such as encrypted email or fax. In most cases, the information provided to us does not contain non-public information.

We request information for our own legitimate business purposes and not for the benefit of a nonaffiliated party. Master Title Agency, LLC will not release your information to any nonaffiliated parties except as necessary for us to provide the product you requested of us or as permitted by law.

Confidentiality and Security

We will take all steps possible to ensure that no unauthorized parties have access to any of your information. Our employees are trained to ensure your information will be handled responsibly. We have procedures in place to safeguard your information that include securing our offices, computers, emails, faxes, and files. In addition, we are in compliance with federal regulations to guard your non-public personal information.
